

Our Live Streams
LISTEN TO WPR ONLINE
 Our Audio Archives

Pledge Your Support to WPR Now!
 Programming you value and rely on...
 Click here to make a contribution today!

WISCONSIN
PUBLIC RADIO

Explore WPR
WPR Home
Listener Feedback
About WPR
Newsletters &amp; Reports
Studios, Stations and Program Schedules
Station Coverage Maps, Reception &amp; Tech Issues
Studios and Stations
Membership Information
Planned Giving
Major Gifts
Corporate Sponsorship
Program Index
Ideas Network
NPR News &amp; Classical Network
WPR News
Internet Webcasting
WPR National Shows
Radio Store
Related Links

WPR Shows:  Search WPR.ORG:

Conversations with Kathleen

For Program On: Monday, December 17, 2007 at 10:00 PM

Are young students getting the education they need to succeed in the That's the topic, after ten, for Kathleen Dunn and her guests. Why are advocating more training in science, technology, problem solving, and thinking. Guests:

- Lauren Baker, Coordinator of Career and Technical Education, Milwaukee Schools. Director, Milwaukee chapter, Project Lead the Way.

- Jay Marino, Associate Superintendent for Organizational Effectiveness: Accountability, Cedar Rapids Community School District, Cedar Rapids:

Previous Program

View all of Kathleen Dunn's Audio Archives!

Kathleen Dunn hosts the WPR's Ideas Network every weekday morning from 9-11am, leading discussions about the issues of the day and the time.

To join Kathleen's program live, call toll-free 1 8655 or if you're in the Milwaukee area, call 2

Kathleen and producer Rhonda Fanning try to do as possible when choosing topics and guests. It's one of her show that has attracted many loyal listeners to hear in-depth discussions that go beyond the headlines.

Program Comments & Suggestions Tij

About Kathleen Dunn

Kathleen's first job in radio was at a small station in North Carolina. Then at an AM station in Milwaukee, she came to Wisconsin Public Radio in 1994.

Kathleen has a deep interest in the news of the day, world affairs, arts and culture. "And," she adds, "I look forward to conversations with people in humanit make our lives worth living."

So as you begin your day, keep your radio tuned to Wisconsin Public Radio with Kathleen and her guests getting at the issues behind the day's headlines.

HOME | ABOUT WPR | BECOME MEMBER | CORPORATE SPONSORSHIP
WPR NEWS | IDEAS NETWORK | NPR NEWS & CLASSICAL NETWORK
NATIONAL PROGRAMMING | RELATED WEBSITES | RADIO STORE
PROGRAM INDEX | LIVE WEBCASTING | AUDIO ARCHIVES

For questions or comments about our programming, call Audience Services at 414-922-1111.