

A Continuous Improvement Classroom

Tuesday, 19 August 2008 15:32 Stephanie

Join APQC and ASQ on September 8th at 1:30-2:30 for a free Web Cast on how Cedar Rapids in Iowa establishes a "Continuous Improvement Classroom."

Jay Marino, Associate Superintendent for Accountability and Organizational Effectiveness from Cedar Rapids, will be hosting an hour long Web Cast on how aligning their system supports a continuous improvement classroom. Utilizing professional learning communities, educators can focus on what is important, student learning. Come learn how they implement their long-range initiative to engage every student through empowerment, ownership, and accountability by creating a student-centered environment.

Registration is free and available to the first 250 people that sign up.

Last Updated (Tuesday, 19 August 2008 15:46)